Bio – Mr. Grumski joined Green Contracting Company in 2022. He is currently working under more senior managers and developing his skills as a project manager. As an assistant, Robert works closely with the PM and the field foreman and serves as a liaison between the field operations and the office. He expedites material and equipment needs and maintains project documents and controls.

In addition to internal coordination, Robert is engaged with both the owner and subcontract forces to maintain communications and ensure continuity of the work.
