Bio –

Mr. Aulakh joined Green Contracting in 2023 as an Assistant Project Manager.

At Green Contracting, Mr. Aulakh works closely with the Project Superintendent and Project Manager to run day to day operations on the jobsite. He is in constant communication with the project team, including subcontractors, to solve coordination issues, write highly technical RFIs, and maintain an accurate and achievable schedule. He is responsible for making sure the field has the proper material and equipment when they need it. Additionally, Mr. Aulakh tracks costs, compiles submittals, and maintains daily project documentation.
